

Spiritual Applications Research Centre (SpARC) takes active participation, in 102nd Indian Science Congress 2015 inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi at University of Mumbai, Kalina on 3rd January 2015

The 102nd ISC 2015 was inaugurated by honourable Prime Minister Narendra Modi at Vidyanagari Campus, Kalina of 'University of Mumbai' on 3rd January 2015. Other guests present at the inauguration comprised of 'Union Minister for Science and Technology', Dr. Harsh Vardhan, 'Chief Minister of Maharashtra' Mr. Devendra Phadnavis, Vice Chancellor- Mumbai University, Dr. Rajan Welukar.

B.K. Hemlatha explaining Spiritual Science Exhibition to Noble Laureate Dr. Paul Nurse (Year 2001 Nobel Prize winner in Medicine 'Dr. Paul Nurse' from London).

He remarked that, "It was a different and new concept for him. He appreciated the exhibition models and emphasized that spiritual values and thought power are essential to create a clean world."

SpARC wing of Brahmakumaris also, participated in this 102nd Indian Science Congress 2015 by establishing 'Spiritual Science Exhibition', at Hall No.24, Shankarrao Chavan Bhuvan, consisting 8 Electronic modules, demonstrating the concept based on the Principles of Natural Science and Philosophy of Spiritual Science.

